CLASSES

Dear Seniors of 1956:

As you participate in the various activities of the commencement season, you are the focus of attention of both the school and the community. We of the faculty are enjoying with you the thrills of this exciting season and are wishing for you the full measure of happiness and success for which you have been preparing yourselves in high school. We are proud of your achievement but, even more, we are hopeful for your future. We are relying on you soon-to-be new alumni of the school to uphold the traditional enviable record of the men and women who have been graduated from P. C. H. S. Best wishes always.

CLASS MOTTO: "Today we sail, tomorrow we anchor."

CLASS COLORS: Blue and Silver

CLASS FLOWER: Camellia-(the beginning)

Class History

In the fall of 1952 our powerful ship, "Education," with thirty-four "Freshies" aboard, started out on a long journey with John Barr as captain and Gary Vrtiska, Ferdie Friedly and Gerald McCall as co-captains, over untried seas bound for the port of "Knowledge." Scarcely were we out of sight of land when some could no longer endure the "Algebraic" dinners or daily "Latin" lunches and took to the briny waters, while others recovered from their sea-sickness and exhibited talent in music and athletics.

Our first stop was "Sophomore Island," one-fourth of the journey complete. Here we bade our brave captain and co-captains farewell and Gerald McCall stepped aboard to direct the thirty-two pilgrims onward with Barbara Vrtiska, Jane Hess and John Barr as his co-captains. Our sailing was smooth until a series of "Geometric" storms befell our pathway. The light was dim, and we all but lost a few in the darkness.

After many hard days at sea, when our little craft was tossed and lashed by the waves, we finally reached "Junior Rock" with thirty members still aboard. Here at the village "Biology" with Roxanne Boren and her assistants Marjorie Peckham, Glenda Allison, Judy Hess and Ferdie Friedly, we learned how to cut up grasshoppers and worms, which we found very exciting! We also learned chocolate worms were good eating.

Finally, led by Ferdie Friedly and helpers Robert Snyder, David Flanagin, Richard Booth, Marjorie Peckham, and Gerald McCall, we anchored at "Senior Year," a large island off the coast of "College." The journey was complete for some, while others would continue to sail for "College."

Yes, "Senior Year" is complete and each must be his own captain as he sets sail on the sea of life.

Class Will

Realizing we must soon step from our realms of seniority, we hereby do will and bequeath the following:

First - To the faculty, our excess knowledge which is so ever present.
Second - To the juniors, our status of being supreme.
Third - To the underclassmen, all unkept lockers, broken pencils, carved names, and slightly used text books.

We now individually bequeath individually to individual individuals as follows:

David Rilinger wills his never ending supply of gum to Loren Murdock. Now the girls will like you, too, Loren!!

Joyce Yarger wills her ability to burn the candle at both ends to Shirley Blecha. Try getting straight "A's" now!

Gerald McCall leaves his many feminine admirers to the remaining boys in P.C.H.S. About time this was divided a little, eh boys?

Marjorie Peckham wills her temperamental disposition to anyone with as many moods.

John Barr leaves his athletic skill to Ronnie Prine. Look out everybody, Ronnie's going to throw out his chest!!

Barbara Vrtiska wills her wiggle to Ronnie Habegger. Some people get all the breaks!!

Ferdie Friedly wills his knowledge of parliamentary procedure to anyone who can shout above the roar.

Alberta Packett leaves all spats with the teachers to the memories of the teachers. She always did have the last word.

David Flanagin wills his painting ability to anyone with an old beat up car.

Arlene Halfhide leaves her love for "bugs" to future biology students. Tip, kids, - we don't mean Bugs Bunny!

Robert Snyder wills his reserved seat in the whirlpool to Lou Haverkamp. Set your bathtub on a swivel chair and have one at home, too!

Karen Preston wills her excellent music talent to all future band members. This will make Mr. Schrepel's job easier.

Alan Hunzeker wills his citizenship grades to Steve Boren and Jim Stewart. What a change!!!

Richard Booth's wisecracks are reluctantly bequeathed to Larry Phelan for his collection.

Juanita Cary wills her studious habits to Lloyd Stewart. This will make headlines!!

Larry Herink wills the fullest nature of his co-operation to Joe Smyth. "A change," did someone say?

Carole Kay Peckham wills her shy and pleasing ways to Susan Yost. Need we say more???

Albert Chauza wills his tendency toward breaking chemistry equipment to someone with a job. It's an expensive pastime, you know!

Glenda Allison wills her ability to get along with everyone to Barbara Bowhay; as if SHE needs it!

Edward Daniel leaves his dimples to Elizabeth Lane. This is simply the finishing touch!!

Mary Margaret McCalla leaves her good parts in the operettas to Gerald Schultz. No time like the present to start swinging your hips!

Judy and Jane Hess leave their desire to go steady to the Larsen twins. Oh, you lucky girls!!!

Kenny Peacock just leaves!!! He's disgusted!!!

Byford Alderman leaves his paper route to anyone that wants to get up early enough to deliver papers.

Becky Colwell leaves for college and a better supply of males.

Bill Kussman wills his physique to Charles Chauza. We suggest Wheaties!!

Art Halfhide wills his position at the Gamble Store to Dippy Daniel. Now you can play with all the toys, Dippy!!!

Roxanne Boren leaves her power of persuasion to Bob Vrtiska. Now he can talk his way out of trouble.

Jerry Cary wills his height to Charles Cary. We don't want you any longer Jerry; you're long enough!!

Gary Vrtiska wills his deceiving innocence to Dennis Shaffer. Save it; it might come in handy some day!

We, the senior class of 1956, leave to each and every student and teacher our wish for the best of luck in the future.

Class Prophecy

One of the biggest events of the year 1966 was the reunion of the Pawnee City high school class of 1956. It was amazing to find what courses each one's life had taken.

We find Byford Alderman in the Hall of Fame. He dusts off George Washington, Abe Lincoln, and Donald Duck.

Joyce Yarger became Mrs. Harlan Arington and they are manufacturing tricycle riders.

Larry Herink is employed as a detective for the Black Cat Insurance Company. If you can't find your wife, hire Larry!

Barbara Vrtiska occupies the top advertising job for Grandma Girsley's Girdles in New York City. Apple pie without the cheeze is like Grandma Girsley's without the squeeze.

Robert Snyder is chief tester for the Double Bubble Chewing Gum Factory. (He's also their best customer!)

Alberta Packett designs the country's leading fashions for men - they wear black denim trousers and motorcycle boots.

Kenny Peacock owns one of the world's largest junk yards due to his own accidental accidents.

Dave Flanagin has spent the last ten years in the navy. When he isn't scrubbing decks, he is helping Richard Booth peel potatoes.

Roxanne Boren is manufacturing boys' class rings. She got her start from the various patterns she sported through high school.

Gary Vrtiska is a taxi driver at the insane asylum. He used to drive people crazy; now he drives crazy people.

Arlene Halfhide is now raising praying mantes as a pastime. Incidentally she feeds them cherry pies!

Ferdie Friedly finally secured a patent on the cow horn he invented for his car. You merely raise a herd and record the best voice!!

We find Earleen Edgerton teaching physical education at Harvard. Need we say more . . . ?

John Barr, whose picture you recognize on every Wheaties box, is an all American athlete. He says he eats Post Toasties for building his muscles!

Judy and Jane Hess have the world's champion debate team. They are still arguing and haven't found a reason yet!

Glenda Allison was declared Queen of the 1963 Rose Bowl Parade. Remember, she was Queen of P.C.H.S. so many times!

Alan Hunzeker is the world's largest producer of honey. To bee or not to bee - that is the question!

Mary McCalla is billed as Jeena - the gal who jitterbugs with jaguars. She is accompanied on the congo drums by that neat treat with the red-hot beat, Karen Preston.

David Rilinger is the president of the new G.C.A. - Gum Chewers Association!!

Juanita Cary is a doctor at the Mayo Clinic. She recently saved the life of Carole Peckham, pianist at Carnegie Hall. It seems Carole swallowed one of Chauza's Nauzas All Day Suckers given her by the owner of the company, Albert Chauza.

Gerald McCall was recently installed as sales manager of the lingerie department in Miller and Paine. Business is booming!!!

Rebecca Colwell has come to world wide renown writing popular music for R.C.A. Her latest hit was, "While Sliding Down the Bannister of Life, I Remember the Splinters in My Career."

Bill Kussman owns the only flea band in the world. When people hear Bill's band play, they flee.

Marjorie Peckham has a husband and ten lovely children. She's really taking her home-making award seriously!

Arthur Halfhide owns a string of Gamble Stores. Actually, most of the gambling is illegal.

Jerry Cary has gone into partnership with his friend Cash; they call their store the Cash and Cary!

Edward Daniel has been behind the Iron Curtain for the past five years. Could you suspect this man with the gorgeous dimples of being a spy!!

Student Council

ROW ONE: Gerald McCall, Ferdie Friedly, Marjorie Peckham, Mr. Bratt. ROW TWO: David Larsen, Bill Thompson, Allen Snyder, Charles Johnson, Joan Hunzeker, Carol Thompson, Judy Boehmer.

The Student Council is composed of members elected from each class and represents the students in school government. In this, its seventeenth year, the council has been very active in the general supervision of the various activities of the school.

At the regular weekly meetings such activities as monthly dances, the freshman get-acquainted party, the school lyceum course, the Christmas and Easter activities, rural school day, the carnival, and assembly programs have been planned.

ACCOMPANIST, Karen Preston.

The mixed chorus, consisting of fifty-six voices, has completed one of its busiest seasons. The group is particularly proud of its new scarlet faille robes. Christmas Vespers, December 18, 1955, was the inspiring occasion when the entire vocal music department appeared for the first time in the new robes.

Accompanists active in the vocal music department are Karen Preston, Carole Kay Peckham, Pamela Fields, Joann Hunzeker, and Nancy Shaffer.

Soloists among the upper classmen in the mixed chorus are Karen Preston, Betty Bock, Bette Warnke, Carita Eggleston, Arthur Halfhide, and Bill Thompson.

This is a national organization of, by, and for farm boys studying vocational agriculture in high school.

The primary aim of this group is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship.

The national convention is held in Kansas City each year during the month of November. The above officers accompanied by our instructor, Mr. Ganzel, and Mr. Droge attended this year.

Our national colors are national blue and corn gold.

The Pawnee City Chapter received its charter in 1929 and has had four advisors. They were Mr. Rosenberger, Mr. Deems, Mr. Vance, and Mr. Ganzel.

Creed

We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage
And high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.

For we are the builders of homes,
Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything
That is good and fair.
Homes where truth, love, security, and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.

We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage,
And high hope.

We are an organization of twenty-six members. Our motto is "Toward New Horizons." Red and white are our colors. The flower of our organization is the red rose.

The 1955 football season opened with an enthusiastic squad reporting to coaches Winter and Bucknell. There were sixteen returning lettermen.

The record for the season was not indicative of the quality of the squad as many of the games played were against schools of a higher classification.

John Barr was honored as an all-conference backfield man in the Southeast Conference. Gerald McCall and Lou Haverkamp were placed on the second team. This year Pawnee City was also a member of the Ak-Sar-Ben Conference. John Barr was placed on its all-conference defensive team.

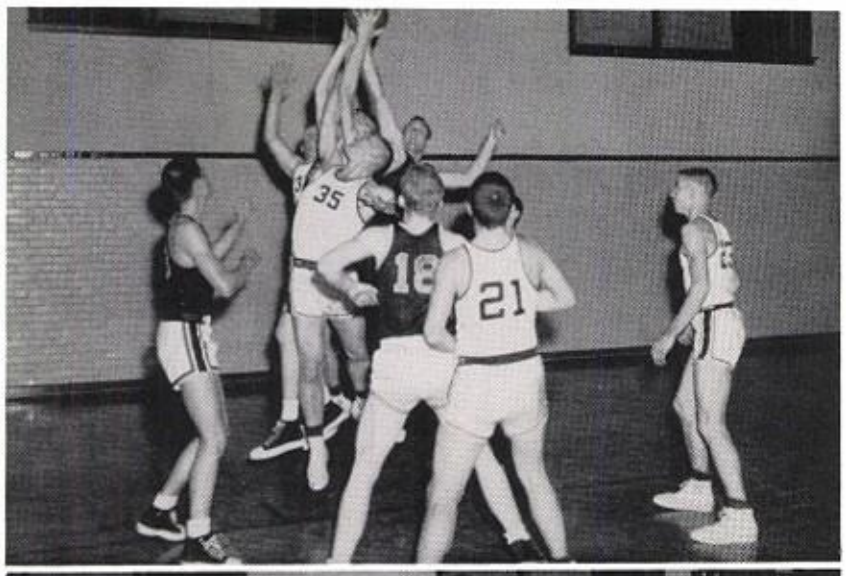
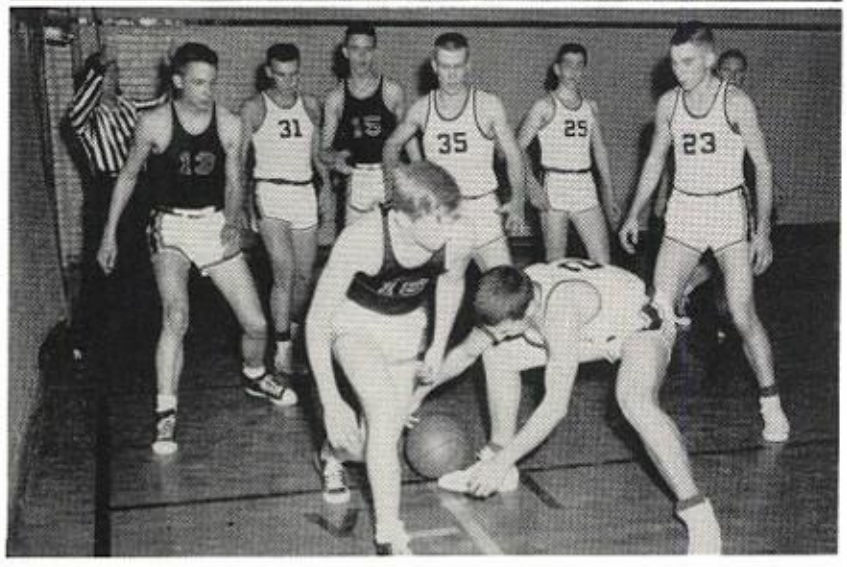
Action Shots - Tecumseh vs. P. C.





The Indians opened the 1955-1956 season with practically all unseasoned boys. Having lost most of the last year's team, Coach Winter had to build this year's team from scratch.

Even though the team had an unsuccessful season in the way of wins, possibilities were shown for an up and coming team in a few years.

Before a boy can become a member of the "P" Club, he has to earn a varsity letter in one of the competitive sports sponsored by the school. The main objective of the club is to promote better sportsmanship and school spirit among the students.

This year the club adopted a new constitution which forms more rigid laws and rules for the members to follow.

ROW ONE: Albert Larsen, Secretary-Treasurer; Gerald McCall, President; John Barr, Vice-President; Robert Snyder, Promoter of Sportsmanship and School Spirit.

ROW TWO: Bill Thompson, Social Chairman; Chuck Johnson, Promoter of Athletics.

Dear Carol.
Here's good luck to your the eighth grade. And good luck on the drums
It won't be long until you'll be top players.
